

GRANDDAD'S PIZZA 5'12"

- 1'02" Let me introduce you to Grandma Pia... and her grand-daughter
Elisa
- 1'09 And here's grand-dad!
- 1'20 He has to tell Elisa a secret ... but grandma mustn't hear
- 1'30 Will we ever know this secret?
- 1'38 Perhaps they just want to go for a walk and enjoy themselves.
- 1'57 And now? Wher've they got to?...
- 2'02 Flour for making bread! They are in the bakery.
2'07 Is that right, they are buying uncooked bread?
- 2'11 It's a bit of a mystery!...
- 2'15 Let's follow them, we have to find out what their secret is...
- 2'22 I better they're going to make some bread! Let's wait and see...
- 2'32 Elisa can't wait, will it be good?
- 2'36 Doesn't look very special!
2'44 Perhaps they wanted to make croissants.

- 2'53 No, I don't think so, that's not how you make croissants . Are they baking a cake?
- 3'00 What's happening now?
- 3'08 Elisa joining in and working away...
- 3'14 That's a good idea Elisa! The pastry flattens out easier with the rolling pin... but not everybody uses one
- 3'31 But it's very very easy, just do like they are doing!
- 3'37 For grand-dad it's not so easy... but he's amusing himself!
- 4'09 You're very good Elisa, almost as good as they are!
- 4'17 the pastry is ready for the cake tin...
- 4'21 What's grand-dad getting?...
- 4'26 Two mozzarella cheeses...so they are not making a cake..
torta... Jam? Who knows...
- 4'37 He cuts the cheese into little pieces... grand-dad, mind your fingers ...
- 4'48 That's it!...
- 4'50 it's tomatoe sauce, not jam... And the mozzarella cheese?

- 4'56 I know, you've got it as well, what's the surprise Elisa and her grand-dad are making! But don't speak too loudly because grandma mustn't know a thing about it!
Put it into a hot oven... and leave it to cook for about ten minutes.
Mmhmm!
- 5'15 Setting the table is also important, when the table is set nicely then eating is more pleasant.
- 5'27 The excellent pizza bakers are ready for the final touch: a leaf of two of fresh parsley
- 5'35 The last touch in Elisa's grandparents' house... e...
- 5'41 1, 2, 3...
- 5'53 Well done Elisa! Well done, grand-dad Pizza!
- 6'07 1,2,3.... Pizza!
