Characters: Hunter = H , Dwarf 1 = D1, Dwarf 2 = D2

01:18 H: Hello !

01:21 D1:Who on Earth is that ? What is he doing here ?

01:28 D2 :Hello ! Who are you ?

01:30 H:The hunter.

01:32 D1:Where did you come from ?

01:34 H:Today I was finished in the workshop.

01:36 D2:In the workshop ? What's that ? Who told you such a nonsense ?

01:42 H:What's so funny ?

01:43 D1:What do you mean ? Who took you for a fool ?

01:48 D1:We weren't make in any workshop. We are real dwarfs from fairytales.

01:53 H:You don't have a clue what's going on. Come with me to the workshop and you'll see.

02:01 H:The master has already got a rubber dwarf.

02:16 H: He puts it in a glass tank and sticks it with glue.

02:34 H:Then he prepares the plaster...

02:40 H: and pours it on the dwarf.

02:52 H:Did you see ? The master poured the plaster on like in a sand form.

03:00 H:Do you know what happens ?

03:04 H:When the plaster hardens, you can see the shape of the dwarf. Actually, just half of it.

03:21 H:Let's see what happens next.

03:33 H:Then, he makes the other half. The two parts are sticked face to face.

Interesting, isn't it ?

03:40 D2:Yes, but what's the use of all that ?

03:45 H:Between these pieces he pours the dwarf.

03:49 D1:How come ? In the fairytale there's no such thing.

03:55 H:But in the workshop, yes.

04:03 H:The rubber dwarf, empty on the inside, goes inside the plaster pieces the master had made earlier.

04:20 H:Attention, please ! The plaster is poured and a new dwarf is born.

04:35 H:After it hardens, the master removes the rubber form.

04:44 H:Ready ! There are so many dwarfs here !

04:54 D2:He is painting us, isn't he ?

05:03 H:Yes, he is !

05:23 D2:Snow White was also made by the master ?

05:28 H:I don't know that.

05:30 D2:I'm sure Snow White comes from the fairytales.
