Korean traditional dog, "Sap-sa-ree"

"Sap-sa-ree" is traditional Korean dog, which is under government guidance, protecting from random hunting. "Sap-sa-ree" is assigned as 368th national treasure. This particular piece teaches children what type of national treasure animals exist and why we should love them and protect them. It shows different parts of "Sap-sa-ree"; once they were very fierce and wild, however they have been tamed these days. The "Sap-sa-ree" couple goes to a competition and boast themselves out in front of audience.
