01:00:08 Hi! This is Ronnie the Mouse

01:00:12 I am standing at the lowest spot on the Earth- The Dead Sea

01:00:16 The Dead Sea is a special sea. Located in Israel , it has many surprises in store for you and so have I!

01:00:23 Many visitors come to spend time at the Dead Sea. Hi! Welcome to the Dead Sea.

01:00:33 It is very hot at the Dead Sea. If you decide to visit , don't forget to bring a hat and sunglasses , as pretty as mine, at least.

01:00:51 Oh, I see a first-time visitor to the Dead Sea ! He still hasn't realizes that you cannot fish at the Dead Sea.

01:01:18- The Dead Sea is such a scary name! Why is it called that? Because there is no life in the waters. The waters here are too salty for living creatures. In short do not try to drink the water of the Dead Sea.

01:01:32 – Look at these people! They are slathering mud all over themselves. It looks funny, doesn't it?

01:01:40- The Dead Sea mud is reach in minerals which are good for our skin. Many people come to the Dead Sea to cover themselves with mud.

01:01:49- But do not worry, it all comes off with water.

01:01:59- Our mixed up visitor doesn't know that in the Dead Sea you do not need floats. In the Dead Sea you can float!

01:02:07- Hey pal! You can leave your float here! Look at all these people! They are floating on the water. And if you feel like it, you can float here with a good book.

01:02:28- Hey guys! Won't you give something to your friend? Luckily I have already had my cheese meal for the day.

01:02:40- Our visitor is rushing off again. Where are you going?

01:02:58- That is a great idea visitor. Unsalted French fries are like a mouse without a mouse hole. Enjoy your food!

01:03:13- That's it? You are leaving? Will you come again? I will be here waiting for you, remember- at the lowest spot on earth. I do not have the energy to climb again....
