The Party

In	Out	Subtitle
		Our tale Is really short
		Not boring Not sad
		Our tale is nice & beautiful
		It is a nice and short tale
		Today's story is about a party
		It is a very big party For animals only
		One day the king of the forest Declared that he will throw a party
		A very big one for animals only
		He also declared that joining the party Is free of charge
		And without any restriction or prerequisites
		The party is for the old and the young
		For the poor and the rich
		For the weak and the strong
		Everyone was delighted with the king's invitation
		But there was only one condition To join the party
		That the king will distribute wool threads
		Among all the invited animals
		So each one would sew a dress for themselves
		He also declared that there will be a prize For the best dress
		The king said that the party will be held After two days

		So , all the animals began to work actively
		They were racing with each other to make The best dress
		Except for our friend Soso the frog
		She said " No, I will eat first"
		" I will eat well to be stronger so I would sew the dress
		She kept eating all day
		Everyone asked her repeatedly about her Dress and she answered
		No one can guess , I have a very good plan
		The first day ended, all the animals were working and Soso kept eating
		The second day
		Rahawan the cock kept crowding to wake Soso up
		Soso opened her eyes and asked what time is it then
		He said that it is too late and everyone Wake up early to sew their dresses
		Soso replied that she felt tired & added
		" I will take a nap then I will wake up to sew the dress'
		Rahawan left her, and she slept till noon
		Soso went out to make her dress
		She passed by them all but she could not stand hot weather
		Soso thought carefully and came To unwise decision
		She ran towards the lake and swam there
		She said ' the best thing to do in this hot weather is to swim "
		Rahawan called on her to make the dress
		She told him that she will make it at night
		At night, Soso will make everything
		The last chance for Soso was the night

		She took the threads but suddenly
		She heard the voice of a circus acrobat
		" Gee, it's the circus"
		Soso ran to the circus to watch the acrobat
		It's the party day
		Everyone entered with their beautiful dresses
		Everyone was inquiring about the best dress except Soso
		She was standing outside because she did not make her dress
		She tried to get in but the watchdog did not allow her to Soso heard them celebrating inside
		She was sad
		At the end the dog felt sorry for her
		He decided to help her to join the party
		Soso started to sew her dress quickly but she was not able to focus
		A lot of effort in short time
		What others did in two or three days Soso must do in such a short time
		She made the dress but it was very bad and short
		Soso joined the party
		The program of the party almost ended
		She lost the prize
		Her dress was very bad
		Hence , Soso is taught a very important lesson
		That what can be made today Must not be postponed till tomorrow
		The story ended
