

Category: Children's Stories

DAILY LIFE
(MEZCALTITLAN)

Time In	Time Out
01:05:09	01:05:13	- Hello Bizbirije, I'm Toño Presto Osuna, and I'm from Mazcaltitlán, in the state of Nayarit.
01:05:14	01:05:18	- Mezcaltitlán is an island, because it is surrounded by water.
01:05:18	01:05:24	- To get to Mezcaltitlán, you have to get to the batanga (dock) and take a panga (raft) here.
01:05:26	01:05:28	- This is my mother, and her name is Graciela Osuna Zarate.
01:05:29	01:05:31	- My mother makes shrimp tamales.
01:05:31	01:05:35	- Sometimes she tells me to get the jacoyos .
01:05:36	01:05:40	- These leaves are called 'jacoyo', and inside them my mother rolls the tamales.
01:05:41	01:05:47	- After bringing the shrimp, she prepares them, fries them and I'm off to sell them.
01:05:48	01:05:49	- Shrimp tamales!
01:05:50	01:05:51	- Shrimp tamales!
01:05:52	01:05:53	- Three
01:05:56	01:05:58	- Two, three, thank you.
01:06:01	01:06:05	- I like living here because it's a very tranquil place.
01:06:05	01:06:08	- And there aren't many cars, like in other cities.
01:06:12	01:06:13	- Hello.
01:06:13	01:06:14	- Hello Toño.
01:06:15	01:06:22	- The nicest thing about my town is there's water, shrimps, boats and overall, my family.
01:06:24	01:06:27	- My mother makes me very proud, for having her.
01:06:27	01:06:29	- She feels the same about me, I think.
01:06:29	01:06:33	- She says when I was born, it was a gift from God.
01:06:40	01:06:43	- Goodbye Bizbirije, it's good you came to my home.

