

About the series "So unfair!"
Erfurt Exchange 2007

"So unfair" is a series of children documentary, 5x5 minutes produced for "The whole world-exchange" ERFURT.

The series reflects the unfairness in life based on a children perspective. Meet for example Zelma who is the youngest in her family and who has to go to bed exactly when all the fun things are happening. And Kalle who loves football but for the most of the time has to sit on the substitutes bench. The dog Jonna who must share the house were she lives with a petulant, independent cat that doesn't have to have a leash. But when all comes around is the unfair pretty fair and pretty good. Maybe even better!

So unfair Zelma

Zelma is six years old and the youngest in the family. That is so unfair. Here older brother and sister can stay up late in the evenings and go alone to their friends. And they are the ones who decide everything in their home made cottage, only because they happens to be the biggest. BUT as a matter a fact Zelma can be free from kindergarten and go to visit cousin Kalle all by here self. That can not Johanna and Nils do, they have to be in school. Poor them being so old, so unfair!
