EBU-PROJECT CHILDREN DRAMA SERIES –TROUBLE-SHOUTERS
MY SWEET FROGGY!

/ Synopsis/

This is the story full of light and pretty emotions, children's fantasy and imagination.

Danny is a small nine-year old girl, ordinary-looking at first glance but if we look more carefully we see that she is full of buoyancy and bright energy. Going to school she passes by a pet-shop every day. Danny always stops at the shop window and greets the various animals. However, her pet occupation is to watch and gesticulate in some strange funny language to a large frog in a glass container.

One day, stopping by the shop window, she doesn't find her pet "Froggy". She looks for him everywhere. The shop-keeper explains that the frog has been sold.

In the Danny's class start biology lesson. Teacher show a frog model with belly open and colored frog organs. After then the teacher show the large frog in a glass container, same from the pet. The children react differently; the boys are mostly laughing. Danny is very upset, she runs out of the room crying.

In the corridor school librarian sees the upset child and tries to calm down the weeping child. She realizes why the child is crying and gave the girl a fairytale book.

At home Danny is worried thinking of the frog. She is restless. Then she remembers the book, opens it and reads the story - The Prince frog.

Danny began to imagine that in the next Biology class she takes the frog and kisses him and, sure thing – he turns into a prince. He takes out his sword against the teacher's tools. Then he takes his princess Danny by the hand and they both leave the room.

The child's fantasy makes her happy and her smile is bright again. A smart plan comes in Danny's head. She immediately goes about implementing it. She goes to the zoo-shop, purchases the artificial frog and noiselessly enters the school. She enters the biology room, finds the glass container, takes her froggy out and puts the artificial one in its place.

The time for the frog lesson has come and everything is taking its normal course. Teacher took the glass container; and realize that it is artificial. She asked the children, where the real frog is and who stole it. No child gives to. Only Dannie looks awfully uneasy because the frog is on her bag.

The boy Tony sitting behind Danny realizes that she's hiding the frog and points the search on himself quacking frog-like. The teacher orders him out of the classroom.

Danny leaves school on the look out for her savior – Tony. Both children start to play by the frog.

Than Danny goes at her room and start to play with the frog. There goes a number of funny acts such as charm. We see what's go on in Danny's imagination. Of course she is a princess. She kisses the frog and animal turns to a prince.

Danny's mother stopped fantasy. She came in home and sees result of Danny's play destroying everything in home.

Next day mother and Danny went in the school. Danny must return the frog and apologize to all. Carried by their speeches mother, teacher and librarian completely omit the girl. Seeing that Danny is in trouble her friend Tony enters the room trying to help her. Danny takes the jar with the frog and quietly tiptoes out of the room.

Danny runs to the lake. She gives the freedom of her sweet friend Froggy. Then the frog darts in to the water. In the water surface slowly floats a face of the prince. Danny doesn't believe her eyes. She turns around and sees Tony. A modern prince has come. Than they run away somewhere. Maybe to take their punishment for having fantasy and for saving a life, although this life belongs to an ordinary frog...
