

EBS - My tooth, the coward

The small-size 8 year-old boy whose nickname is 'Peanut' loves to play soccer. He longs to be part of neighbourhood's "The Missing Tooth Soccer Team" but can't join because he was considered as a coward due to a full set of teeth. Despite his one wobbly tooth, he is not allowed to join unless that tooth comes out- a symbol of courage! Peanut is afraid to pull out his wobbly tooth and blames his tooth for being the coward, not him. He decides to overcome his fear to join the soccer team.
