HOME...

A child's touching journey from the multinational neighborhoods of Athens to the colorful and mysterious savannahs of Africa. A journey to a tragic past she never experienced.

An African tale about the return to the homeland.

About the nostalgia we bear in our cells.

About the need we have for roots.

About blossoming, even from the ashes.

(In Sierra Leone children fought on both opponent sides. Many of them lost their lives in battles or due to diseases and starvation. Now, the people count their wounds and many refugees from all over the world return to see what remained from the life they once led.)
