

NHK - Omelette

Two brothers are determined to impress their father, returning home after an overseas assignment, by making him his favourite dish, an omelette. However their good intentions start off badly with failed and misguided attempts that result in many hilarious outcomes. Both the brothers persevere, especially the older one, and overcome their inability to cook an omelette, in time for their father's homecoming.