'21 DAYS'

SYNOPSIS

Sarah Cunningham is 12 years old. She is going to Irish college this summer for three weeks; 21 days away from home and her parents! She is looking forward to a first taste of freedom, miles from home with no-one to tell her what to do. But things don't quite work out that way, and Sarah discovers that standing on your own two feet is harder than it seems. 21 days is an exploration of a typical rite of passage for Irish children, the trip to Irish college, filmed over a three week period in Dingle, Ireland. Filmed, directed and produced by Niamh Guckian Ahern.
