"My Parents Wedding"

PRESS

Cuan Rhyhart is a 10 year old Dublin boy. He loves his summer holidays but last summer was a bit different;

He was the best man at his parents wedding.

"My Parents Wedding" follows Cuan over the summer of 2006. The programme gives a kids eye view of an event that can be hard to understand for a 10 year old. As the big day approaches, will his mum's frantic preparations get in the way of Cuan's summer, how will he handle his nerves as he does his reading in the church, will he remember the ring?

When Cuan has some time to himself he tells us how life may change after the wedding. Will his Mum and Dad still love him and his little brother as much, and why does Cuan wish his parents got married when he was four?

Filmed, Produced & Directed by Justin Healy, My Parents Wedding is an RTÉ production for the EBU Children's Documentary exchange.
