RTS, tv Belgrade-List of dialogues for the documentary THE CLIMB

0.11 - 0.16	opening title THE CLIMB
0.21 - 1.00	My name is Jovana Savić, and I live in a town called Petrovac na Mlavi. I live with mom, dad and my sister. Granny and grandpa live in a house near by.  My mother's name is Irena. She always gives me good advice. Dad's name is Vladica and I really love it when he tells me things about music.  Mina is my sister. I love her very much. We get along fine, and we do everything together. I realize I sometimes bore her.  My friends and my sister are on a winter vacation with the scouts.
1.10 - 1.20	C'mon Jovana, finish that! -I can't...  No excuses, finish your food! -I can't.
1.19 - 1.30	Hey, Mina, how are you doing? -Fine, we've just started.  Are you cold? -No, we're all properly dressed.  How far did you get? -Almost half way through. Everyone is excited and anxious to get there.
1.31 - 1.36	And what are you doing? -Oh, nothing, reading something.  Right! I'll call you later.
1.39 - 1.47	I didn't go to the winter vacation because I've fallen ill. I was really sorry for not going with them.
1.59 - 2.15	Hello! Hello! -We have to go back.  You can't get through? -I don't really know... We have to go back although everyone is willing to try.  We have to give up, it's at least a two hour's walk to the top and we just can't get through.  Deep snow, is it? -Right... Bye!

2.23 - 2.33	My hometown is called Petrovac na Mlavi. The river Mlava runs into the Danube right outside the town. I love my town very much because everything is close at hand. The park, the school and even the basketball court.
2.36 - 2.59	I'm so glad the trainer let me be the playmaker, because I really like assisting others. That's what a playmaker does - being the organizer of the team, giving the team support when things get tough.
3.11 - 3.27	When I was born, Mina was just two years old and she just couldn't pronounce my name - Jovana. She used to call me "Nonana", actually "Nona" for short, and that's what everybody calls me now.
3.28 - 3.40	My sister is my role model. I like spending time with her friends, also because they've accepted me. They don't treat me like a little kid. I like others to think that I'm older than I am...
3.45 - 3.56	The camp is like a small town of our own. Our tents are the houses, and we are the inhabitants of our little world that belongs only to us.
4.24 - 4.52	The first three or four nights we had constant rain, and thunder storms. Really awful weather! I spent two nights in the same tent with Isidora, and since it was her first time in a camp she got a little scared. She moved into my sleeping bag. So the two of us slept together in one bag.
4.53 - 5.13	When I was leaving they told me to take care. Things like: "Don't get your feet wet, always change your wet clothes if you get sweaty. Don't get into a draft, watch out..." I took care of myself when it was raining, and I didn't mind the rain at all!
5.15 - 5.24	Sometimes they say that kids grow in the rain, but in spite of all the rain I took I didn't get any taller.
5.27 - 5.35	I'm in the same platoon with my sister, with Jelisaveta and with my other girl friends because its a girls' unit.
5.36 - 5.39	We were given a really cute name: "Forest squirrels".
5.44 - 5.50	Mina and Jelisaveta showed off because they're platoon leaders now...
6.03 - 6.10	Like every sergeant, leading a platoon I had to raise my voice occasionally and put some of them down a little... Jovana, for example. There were even some quarrels, but we settled that.
6.15 - 6.37	This year, the annual fair in Petrovac was held during our camping. I resisted the temptation and stayed in the camp to train for my exams. Older girl scouts from our platoon - their group is called "Mountain Roe deer" didn't resist and went to the fair. I would have liked going to the fair myself, but I still stayed at the camp.
6.50 - 6.59	It's the first annual fair I've missed, but never mind. I didn't want to miss the last three days at the camp because they're the most fun ones.

MEETING OF TV YOUTH PROGRAMME EXPERTS

(Ponta Delgada, 12 to 15 November 2005)

7.01 - 7.14	I didn't worry about passing the knot tying exam, because I already knew some of the knots since last year. It was much harder passing the signaling exam, and many of the others had their doubts about me and my friend, but we both made it.
7.21 - 7.39	There were five platoons in the camp and all the things we did was scored. For the time being the boys are in the lead - "Hawks from Vranje". But we're catching up slowly and I believe we'll end up first.
8.02 - 8.15	The "secret friend" game has a special role in the life of a scout's camp. Everyone gets his "secret friend". That's a person that has to take care of another scout. Actually we all get to be someone's secret friend.
8.29 - 8.39	I like the fact that I can show some things to those that are younger than me. I don't mind showing them skills, teaching them what I know... I enjoy giving advice.
8.49 - 8.53	Hi, Jovana. A letter for you. -Thanks.
8.54 - 9.24	Dear secret friend, I was so pleased when I got you as my secret friend. I hope you're enjoying yourself here in the camp, and that you've made many new friends. Maybe you've even fallen in love just a little. Too bad you can't answer these questions right away, but I'll just have to wait until Saturday evening. Meanwhile I'm sending you my greetings, a few rose petals, and ten birds' chirps. Your secret friend.
9.34 - 9.38	Are you tired? - I am...
9.40 - 9.48	I expect that from now on my parents will treat me just as they do Mina, because I don't want to be pampered any more.
10.28 - 10.35	When we started up the mountain I was sure we would make it.
10.46 - 10.53	Being in the camp has built up my confidence. I think I have demonstrated I belong in the senior scouts group.
12.36 - 13.00	The climb to the top of the mountain was difficult, there were many steep cliffs and even poisonous snakes on the way. I'm glad I didn't pull out from the climb to the top of Mt. Vulkan like some others did. I realized then that one must be determined and persistent. That you should believe in yourself. I am eager to climb some other mountain next year...
13.45 - 14.05	This is the last cuddling and a good-bye to the way things used to be. Maybe they'll cuddle me again when I'm sick or in some similar situation... But no more cuddling in front of other children or relatives!
