RUV - THE HORSE GIRL - PRESS RELEASE:

The Horse Girl
(Hestastelpan)

Press release

The HORSE GIRL is a documentary about Juliana, a 12 year old Icelandic girl, who's biggest interest is horses. She has her own horse and she is practicing to go for the first time on a three day trek on horses with her mother. Few days before the big event Juliana finds out that her horse will not make the trek. Juliana is not willing to give up the opportunity to participate and starts looking for other horses to take on this long trip. The experience is not easy to handle and Juliana will grow with it.

This film is RUV Television's entry for Iceland in the EBU Children Documentary Series 2006.

It was produced by Linda Asgeirsdottir and Aegir J. Gudmundsson at Ljosaskipti ehf. for RUV Television.

The project supervisor at the EBU is Marion Creely.
