

The Emigrant - this is a story about Maciek Stolarczyk, 11 years old boy who suddenly was informed by his father that the whole family would move to England. It was shock for Maciek who has never been far from his hometown Jaworzno than 100 kilometers.

Having very little experience with English after short course in his primary school he was very afraid to go to another country leaving behind his city, friends, football team, and good memories from his childhood.

After two months of living in Crewe, south of Manchester, and having no one English friend he started his education in a new school. Alone, scared, with many doubts Maciek is facing with the biggest challenge in his young life.

Maciej Zakrocki