4.01	NHK Japan	Toshiya Nakazawa (Hiroko Sakaue Sakaue-h@nhk-ed.co.jp )	The Manner - learning Zen Practice	2x 1'15"	This is a segment of "Let's get moving". "Let's get moving" introduces unique exercise and games using all parts of the body, with the aim of sharpening the corporal sense and stimulating the growth of the mind as well as the body. "Learning Zen Practice" introduces basic training methods of the Zen sect (Soto sect), which is one of the traditions of Buddhism in Japan. In the Zen sect, cooking, eating, cleaning and every other action of daily life are considered important in training religious discipline. It is said that your state of mind even shows in how you take off your shoes.	Y/30	Japanese
