TOM & OSCAR: summary

Tom lives in a council flat with his father and his best friend Oscar, a dog. Pa is busy preparing for their coming holiday when an ice cream van drives up to the flats. Tom wants to get an ice cream for Oscar and himself, but Pa shakes his head. Tom gives Oscar a sad look and slinks away with his tail between his legs.

Oscar walks over to Pa's jacket, which is hanging over a chair in the living room, and sniffs at the pocket. Pa's wallet is in the pocket. Tom looks up and sees Oscar rubbing his nose against Pa's wallet. Tom understands Oscar's plan. Pa is in the kitchen doing the washing up. Oscar takes the wallet and he and Tom creep out of the living room unnoticed. Tom and Oscar enjoy their illicit ice creams. But will they be able to replace Pa's wallet without being caught?
