

Summer with Markus

[original title: "Sommaren med Markus"]

Markus from Sweden, age 12, has to remain in the city with his mother over the summer holiday. All his friends have summer places in the country to go to. But Markus and his mother have no such option.

Their only chance for some time outside the city is a week near the end of the summer at the City Mission family holiday camp in the archipelago.

Filmmaker Anna Sommansson accompanied Markus from his last-day-of-school festivities, through his summer in the city, to his week at the holiday camp at the end of the summer holiday.

This 15-minute film is part of an EBU series on children in various European countries.
