OPERATING EUROVISION AND EURORADIO

GETTING TO THE EBU

EBU headquarters is located in the heart of Geneva's international district, a short distance from the airport.

L'Ancienne-Route 17A
CH-1218 Grand-Saconnex
Switzerland

FROM THE AIRPORT

Pick up a free public transportation ticket (valid for 60 minutes) from the baggage collection area, just before customs control, at the airport.

Take the N° 5 bus (direction "Thônex-Vallard") or the N° 28 bus (direction "Jardin botanique") and get off at the "Le Pommier" bus stop.

The bus ride will take around 4 minutes. The EBU is a further 4 minutes walk.

FROM THE CITY CENTER AND TRAIN STATION (GARE CORNAVIN)

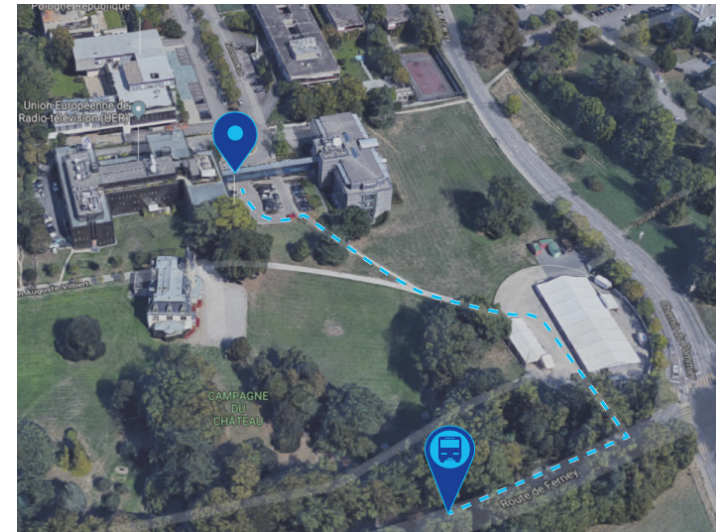

The N° 5 bus (direction "Aéroport") or the F bus (direction "Gex-Aiglette") both stop at "Le Pommier", from which the EBU is a short walk.

Consult the Geneva Public Transportation Network (TPG) website to determine the fastest route from any location in Geneva. Information about schedules, routes and fares are also available.

Ticket machines are available at most bus stops and on some buses, and the cost is CHF 3.-.

To avoid a penalty, buy your ticket before boarding.

If you are staying at a hotel, you may be offered a Geneva Transportation Card, giving you free access to public transport.

FROM THE CITY CENTER

Taxis can be ordered online, by telephone (+41 22 320 2233) or at one of the many taxi stands around the city and at the airport.

The fare from the airport or the train station to the EBU is roughly CHF 30 depending on traffic, the time of day, how much luggage you have and the number of passengers.
