

DTI Community Roundtables: COVID-19 and the Transformation of Work

Thursday October 29, 11am CET

Agenda

1. Welcome & Introduction

Eoghan O'Sullivan, Consultant EBU T&I
Sasha Scott, Project Lead, DTI

2. CBC – Canada:

Findings and Implications for the Future of Work

Heaton Dyer: Executive Director, Strategy and International Relations

Caroline Lévesque-Pelletier: Chief of staff of the Executive Vice-President Corporate Development

Youni Shabah: Director Business Transformation & Organizational Performance

3. SVT – Sweden:

"How 150 people almost immediately started to work from home, stayed focused and kept the happiness of work(ing together?)"

Sara Fahlander

COO, SVTi (SVT Interactive)

4. ABC – Australia:

- Recap on the ABC's experience over last 9 months (our response/new ways of working/support for staff)
- Where we are now and plans for next 6-12 months (COVID 19 cases declining, operations resuming, pressure to define longer term WFH vision and work we are doing around that)
- How do we keep on track to deliver our longer term strategy, the ABC's five year plan

Deanne Ireland: Head of People and Culture Strategy and Projects

Jeremy Millar: Acting Head of Corporate Strategy

5. Discussion

6. Wrap up